DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Tran (US6070140).

Regarding claim 1, Tran discloses a computer-implemented method for processing requests voiced by a user (Abstract), comprising the steps of: receiving user speech input that contains words from the user that are directed to at least one concept, said user speech input containing a request for a service to be performed (Abstract); performing speech recognition of the user speech input to generate recognized words (Fig 16, Col 11, Lines 1 - 20); determining the concept of the user speech input by applying fuzzy logic rules to the recognized words, said fuzzy logic rules defining non-crisp relationships among predetermined concepts (Fig 19, Col 17 – Col 18, Lines 35 – Lines 45); and processing the user's request based upon the determined concept of the user speech input(Abstract, Fig 27 – Fig 31).
